BRYAN ALEXIS ESCALERAS MATÍNEZ

PROFILE

Senior legal practitioner with advanced expertise in strategic dispute resolution, high-stakes litigation, and multisector legal advisory. With a Master's degree in Procedural Law and Oral Litigation, he has built a practice distinguished by technical rigor, executive-level judgment, and the ability to manage complex legal challenges with institutional impact.

His experience spans mediation and arbitration—including complex proceedings and actions for annulment of arbitral awards—administrative and constitutional litigation, corporate governance advisory, PPP structuring, and legal oversight of major public-sector initiatives. Bryan also brings specialized exposure to sports law, banking regulation, and delegation contracts in regulated industries. His approach is defined by analytical depth, strategic foresight, and a results-oriented mindset aligned with organizational objectives.
